

The Colors

Episcopal Cursillo Newsletter • Diocese of Olympia • Spring 2009

ON THE WEB...

The current and past editions of The Colors are also available online. The current edition is usually posted several weeks before the edition appears in mailboxes.

Point your web browser to: www.olycursillo.org/colors.htm

Please remember to notify the Cursillo office when you move or change your phone number or email address. We want to be sure you receive notifications and news. And if you would like to work a weekend, Rectors and Rectoras need this contact information to get in touch with you.

Other good stuff at our website www.olycursillo.org:

- Up-to-date changes to the weekend team and candidate rosters at www.olycursillo.org/weekends.htm
- Cursillista Profile form (lets us know who is interested in working a weekend) at www.olycursillo.org/profile.htm
- Sample palanca request letter, links to an online source of Cursillo-related merchandise, and a list of weekends around the world at www.olycursillo.org/links.htm

“ONE WOMAN, ONE MAN, EACH CHURCH, EACH YEAR”

With the adoption of the motto printed above, the Cursillo Movement will provide Christian leaders for all of our churches throughout the Diocese on a continuing basis.

Is it difficult goal to attain? Not really. Do we do very well in terms of accomplishing it? Not really. Why not? I'd venture to say that it's because we all too often see the same congregations sponsoring people for Cursillo; which means we don't spread the Good News very far beyond our good old time-trodden path. Imagine where we would be if Jesus had not ventured beyond living in Nazareth! Are you up to the challenge of spreading the Good News? You can do so quite easily by sponsoring someone for Cursillo. Ask yourself who in your congregation hasn't attended a Cursillo weekend and would be a good candidate. You can download an application at www.olycursillo.org/application.htm.

Another guess would be that some see Cursillo as a “closed group” or “a secretive society.” Actually, nothing is further from the truth. In fact, the Secretariat has recently published a new brochure that provides complete information about Cursillo and what happens on a Cursillo weekend. You should be able to obtain a copy at your church, or you can view it on the web at www.olycursillo.org/cursillo_brochure.pdf. You can also e-mail a request to cursillo@ecww.org for a copy and we will mail one to you.

It is also possible that some feel threatened by Cursillo and think that it will take people in their congregation and divert their energy and efforts somewhere beyond the church. This, too, is not accurate. The defined purpose of Cursillo is to grow Christ-centered leaders for the church. Or stated another way, Cursillo helps prepare people for their ministries in the church by helping them deepen their relationship with our Savior.

So, I call on each church—each of you reading this—throughout the diocese to sponsor one man and one woman for Cursillo each year. Once we do this, we can then truly judge whether Cursillo has an impact on the ministry taking place in our congregations.

Shalom,
Matthew Finnigan, President

LOCATIONS SOUGHT FOR 2010 WEEKENDS

Hosting Cursillo weekends around our Diocese gives us the opportunity to experience God's work in many places. If your parish is large enough to accommodate 60–80 people for the Thursday evening through Sunday afternoon weekends and would like to be considered for 2010 Spring and Fall events, please call Caroline Whalen at 425-885-1643.

WHERE DO YOU WORSHIP?

If your name appears on the alphabetic list below, we don't have a record of where you worship (as of 3/31/2009). Please help us update our database by calling Laura Gregg (206.660.9434) or emailing the Cursillo office at cursillo@ecww.org to let us know in what congregation and city you worship. Thanks!
