Community participation opportunities.

The Flower Shower is the final weekend evidence of God's agape'. Flowers brought to Closing will be added to pre-assembled bouquets, which will then be presented to the guests as they depart the Closing worship.

Grace Notes, those important personal words of encouragement, may be
 1) carried by a team member from your parish to the weekend facility -or-
 2) mailed c/o Caroline Horrigan, 7520 Maltby Rd., Woodinville WA 98072.
 For delivery to the weekend, mailed Grace Notes MUST be received no later than Thurs., Oct. 27. Inner envelope containing a Grace Note shall show the guest's or team member's first and last name. Grace Notes will be delivered twice -- once on Saturday, once early Sunday.

Prayer vigil:

- What? The OlyCursillo community bathes the weekend in prayer, covering the weekend experience for guests and team.
- When? Vigil runs from 10am Friday, October 28 until 2pm Sunday, October 30. The Vigil Chapel at Dumas Bay Centre will be staffed by on-site team.
- How? Community members are invited to pray from home. Anyone may sign up to pray two-hour time blocks from anywhere. To join the vigil, email charles_l_smith@yahoo.com. A schedule will be posted at Dumas Bay for guests and team to observe.

Fourth Day Celebration, a Weekend Follow-up:

- Where? St. John's Episcopal Church, 105 State Street South, Kirkland WA <http://www.stjohnskirkland.org>
- When? Saturday, November 5 from 10am – 3pm.
- Lunch? Hosting parish provides main dish. Please bring a dish to share.
- Why? Fourth Day Celebration welcomes all: Come & See guests & friends, clergy, community, team, those curious about Come and See...Go and Tell/Cursillo.
- Activities? Fourth Day continues the weekend experience with benefit of retrospection. Expect more sharing, music, lunch, a Q&A to review the weekend, other personal growth opportunities.

Continue to shower the weekend in prayer.

THE COLORS is distributed ONLY via email. Printing and mailing of hard copies consumed a disproportionate amount of the budget. Someone needs a hard copy? Request one from officemanager@olycursillo.org. Thank you! Secretariat
